ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2020-05

I, B. Sue Fulton, Chair and Chief Administrator of the New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission (“MVC”), as authorized pursuant to Executive Order No.138 (2020), the Motor Vehicle Security and Customer Service Act, N.J.S.A. 39:2A-1, et seq., N.J.S.A. 39:3-10, N.J.S.A. 39:3-10f, N.J.S.A. 39:3-10.30, the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration Waiver in Response to the COVID-19 National Emergency For States, CDL Holders, CLP Holders, Interstate Drivers Operating Commercial Motor Vehicles, July 1, 2020, and Notice of Enforcement Policy Regarding Expiring Driver’s Licenses and Medical Examiner’s Certificates During COVID-19 National Emergency, Department of Homeland Security, and Transportation Security Administration [Docket No. TSA–2003–14610] Exemption from Renewal of the Hazardous Materials Endorsement Security Threat Assessment for Certain Individuals, and for good cause shown, do hereby order as follows:

1. Any valid New Jersey commercial driver license (“CDL”) or commercial learner permit (“CLP”) due for renewal between March 1, 2020 and September 30, 2020 shall hereby expire on September 30, 2020. Expired nondomiciled CDLs are NOT extended.

Medical certifications or medical variances for holders of a CDL with proof of a valid medical certification or medical variance issued for a period of 90 days or longer that expired on or after March 1, 2020 will remain “certified.” Those driving with a CDL must carry a paper copy of their medical certificate.

CDLs, CLPs, Medical Examiner Certificates and Medical Certifications that expired prior to March 1, 2020 are NOT extended. Medical Examiner Certificates issued for less than 90 days are NOT extended.

Nothing in this Order shall be construed as restoring the commercial driving privilege of any person subject to an order of suspension or any suspension order imposed after the date of this Order.

Nothing in this Order shall be construed as permitting the operation of a commercial motor vehicle without complying with the appropriate laws pertaining to commercial driver licensing and all safety requirements governing the operation of commercial motor vehicles, including maintaining and having in effect all required insurance.

2. Any Hazardous Materials Endorsement (“HAZMAT”) due for renewal between March 1, 2020 and September 30, 2020 shall expire on September 30, 2020. HAZMAT endorsements that expired prior to March 1, 2020 are NOT extended.
3. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as reducing the fee required to be paid upon renewal of any basic or commercial driver license or vehicle registration.

This order shall take effect June 17, 2020.
